A Concordance of One's Life Jim Nelson

A young man indexes his memoirs into a concordance, creating a media sensation as millions of readers jockey to decode his unpublished life story. A man constructs his new girlfriend from scraps of photos collected off the Internet. A shortwave radio threatens to demolish a South Pacific island culture's traditions. Two Americans in a sleepy Mediterranean seaside town witness a bizarre annual ritual performed by the locals. A professional obituary writer's last request: to have his own obituary published upon his death.

Jim Nelson introduces you to these characters and more in A Concordance of One's Life, a collection of ten short stories that ride the fine edge of what's possible and what lays just beyond while remaining intensely personal, quietly human, and deftly enjoyable.
