Looking for something extra special for the horse lover? God and horses are the perfect combination. I have the gift that will keep on giving 365 days a year! This book will inspire in ways you never thought possible and you will never look at barn chores or horses in the same light again. This devotional will make you smile, laugh and even tear up at times. Running a horse business or owning horses for pleasure is a wonderful way to go through life but we have all gone through challenging days running our barn or riding our horses. This book is perfect for the horse trainer, barn owner or any other equine professional and it is simply perfect for the person that is crazy about horses. Each story and experience brings me back to the Lord and shows me how my life relates to everything that I do on our horse farm and in every horse I work with. At the end of each story is a bible verse that I truly believe relates to what the story is talking about. As I was writing this book I became more and more lifted up with each story I put down on paper. This book will lift you up each day before you head out to the barn or give you a peace after a long day working with horses. This book will give you a renewed excitement for all that you can be in the world of horses.
