Pope Joan, the woman Pope Cerinto

See here the rare and astonishing story of an unprecedented woman who daring to disguise herself as a man in an epoch when doing so was considered a horrendous sin severely condemned and accordingly cruelly punished, was finally elected Pope of Rome and rose to St. Peter's See. Nevertheless I have seen the story from the point of view of a girl who abhorring marriage intends to be a solitary hermit until the fame of her virtue spreads and she is begged to be the head of the Catholic Church. Disguised as a man, of course.
