Alexis Sinclair was not human. He was a Vampire and a Warlock. People feared him, but they also respected him. He ruled an empire and could almost get whatever he wanted... except her... the woman he had guarded since the day she was born.

She had struggled her whole life. Never knowing that the skills she joked about were real. Time abused her, and finally, old, tired and in pain, she decided she had suffered enough and would take her own life.

Alexis had been told by 'The Regime' not to interfere in her life, but he couldn't let her die. He made her young again and brought her to his world. A secret world where species she had never even heard of lived. It was an old fashioned world hidden within the modern human world she was used to. A world with violence, death and magic beyond your wildest imagination.

She got everything she could wish for but had to sacrifice more than she wanted...
