KIARA:

We should have never met.

But my plane was grounded, and this guy...he looked like he could take me places. He had gorgeous grey eyes, a tongue that cracked like a whip and a body stacked with purpose.

One sleepless night should have been enough. But he won't leave my mind. After everything I've been through, that's the surest sign I need to walk away.

Problem is, he's not just some businessman. He's rich. The sort of rich that makes the Kennedys look middle-class.

And he's not done with me.

A sexy, wealthy playboy trying to make you his? It's every girl's dream.

And it's the last thing I want.

Now someone tell my body that.

DEACON:

My family's been trying to cram a silver spoon in my mouth since the day I was born. I just keep spitting it out and do things my way.

When business goes really well, I allow myself a treat. And this girl, she was a feast: curvy hips, tender lips, sultry brown hair. Plus, a brain backing it all up.

She's the most perfect creature I've ever met. She thinks I'm gonna let her slip away after one taste?

Not a chance in hell, sweetheart.

Nothing's going to keep her from me.

Not work, not family.

Not even her.

Deacon is a sexy-sweet standalone novel with a well-earned HEA. It features sizzling banter, steamy sexual situations and intense drama. Mature audiences only!
