No! No! No! This was not how her career was supposed to go at all. This was not the way Casey had seen her progression in law enforcement. Being near killed by her partner and dirt ex-husband, and then being rescued by the killers she had sworn to put behind bars. No! This most certainly was not how her life was to go. But if it did continue she was happy it was with the leader of the mercenaries she had fallen in love with...the blue eyed Jasmine. But all was not set in the land of happy ever after yet, because after several close calls and twists in the story, they were on the top of the hit list for two very important people. Would she lose the love she had just found or will they survive long enough to see what normal had to offer them? Even greater was her concern that her own love might kill her for suspected betrayal.
