Relationships are hard work. But you can build a strong and healthy relationship with your spouse. This book will teach you how. This book begins by exploring why you feel this way. Is it something that happened in previous relationships or something from childhood? Know the root cause and then learn to manage this fear. Next, the main part of the book discusses healthy communication, and the respect, consideration, and commitment you need to show to your spouse in order to have a strong relationship. The book ends with practical advice - like making a financial plan that works for you and your spouse, as well as explaining the growth mindset for a relationship - which is a commitment to work on the relationship for the long run.
