'Hey, I'm not gay. Why would I think he is sexy?' Marvin and his friends are thrilled that they will have "slaves" who'll do anything for them, not just housework. To support their university's program, their parents participate in an auction, involving the contestants of an all-boy beauty contest. Each participant pays for the services of a chosen contestant per day. Those who refuse to do their tasks will be humiliated in front of everyone during the opening of the next term. Secretly planning to take advantage of the situation, Marvin and his group try to convince their "slaves" to make extra effort for them. They are blunt with their demands and use blackmail to get things done. Unfortunately, one of them changes his mind. He wants to protect what's his, even from his gang. Now, the group faces uncertainties with each member unwilling to deal with the consequences. For they must choose, love or friendship...
