HONOR THY FATHER: Part 3 Genevieve Barnes

Reunited after a three month long separation, the Campbell children and Abigail watch as the Campbell family home burns to the ground with their father, uncle, and grandfather inside. Once again, they are faced with the torturous confusion of not knowing whether their loved one is alive or dead.

Abigail struggles internally and externally to find a place to belong among her new found siblings – something Riley is determined to make as difficult for her as possible. On top of that, they all must face a new series of emotional trials as Jason discovers something about their mother's past they never imagined.
