Chivalry Isn't Dead

Jilted architect, Josh Powell, may have sworn off love, but he's still a virile man. When he recognizes a sexy woman from a Vegas adult entertainment ad, he wonders if a night with an attentive call girl might be the perfect remedy for his deflated ego and raging libido.

Eager to be married to her ultra-righteous fiancé and finally consummate their love, Allison Miller is stranded without a dime in Sin City. When a hunky stranger mistakes her for a hooker, she eventually convinces him she's still a full-fledged virgin and not the woman in the pornographic ad. Nevertheless, after Josh's kiss ignites her passion, Allison questions her feelings for the fiancé who abandoned her. Desperate for cash, she reluctantly accepts a job as Josh's temporary assistant. All goes well until someone slips a new street drug into her drink. Suddenly, doing it is all she can think about.

The only way Josh can keep Allie safe from the Vegas perverts eager to take advantage of her uninhibited state, is to tend the damsel himself. Despite her frantic attempts at seduction, his chivalrous nature won't let him claim her chastity— not while knowing his frozen heart will never be enough for the sweet girl who refuses to comply with Sin City's unwritten rule: What happens in Vegas, stays in Vegas.
