The Gospel of John, John the Apostle, Son of Zebedee, Brother of James, Called a "Son of Thunder" is the entire book of the Gospel of John taken from the King James Version of the Holy Bible. The Gospel of John is a comprehensive book that contains Scriptures to gain a full understanding of the story of the first coming of the Messiah, Jesus Christ; the reason that Jesus Christ came (John 4:34: "My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work"); the messages that he taught (John 4:13-14: "Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life"); and the miracles that Jesus performed (John 8:28-29: "When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.")). This is the testimony according to the apostle John.
