This casebook supplement is, in itself, a compendium of modern antitrust law. It presents the eight U.S. Supreme Court antitrust cases decided since Trinko in 2004, which span almost all areas of antitrust law from resale price maintenance and tying to predatory buying, joint ventures, extraterritorial jurisdiction and the antitrust/regulation interface. As well, it presents contemporary merger and monopoly analysis and policy, and it contains sufficient substantive excerpts from the European Microsoft case to allow an appreciation of the US/EU fault lines.
