Angela is home all alone. She's getting ready to study for a major test that's coming up. Waiting on her study partner she goes to her closet to get a sweatshirt because she's chilly. When she sees her toys on the floor of her closet she thinks about taking one out and playing with herself. Trying not to get distracted from her books she remembers that Tiffany is supposed to come over and decides to hold off on pleasing herself. When Tiffany finally makes it to the house and Angela opens the door she sees that Tiffany has been crying. Going into Angela's bedroom she finally asks what the matter is.
