The station "Criticizes" euphoria waited the arrival of the holidays especially Christmas time, this was because unlike other stations which focused on giving news according to the holiday season, "Criticizes" yielded to its distinctive character and it looked completely focused on giving different news such as murder, crimes of corruption and suicides all this in a tone of irony and discord which had become so successful in the last ten years. Its founder Armando Botana throughout the year was out focused exclusively on their business activities, but 24 and 25 December every year personally took charge of practice as a speaker, so selecting the best stories and stories, is pending police cases and scoops, allocating a live program 12 hours divided into two 6-hour programs called "Today nobody is saved" on with his Dj Allison Lowell relayed smoothly, allocating a selected group of broadcasters and journalists working for the chain that night who would perform fieldwork looking for the best news about bloody cases had elapsed in that night, and so the program begins: "Happy holidays to everyone in New York, not only the city but the entire state, and from now be being accompanied by my Armando Botana, the only speaker who only works twice a year, ahead smiled, also she is with me the beautiful Dj Allison Lowell who will be accompanying us with music. From now ready for more bloody case and stay tuned to radio and that will happen tonight. "
