MORE NEPHI CODE As thoroughly documented in Lehi Never Saw Mesoamerica, since the Nephite Land of Promise was the Andean area of South America, this second, follow-up work answers the question, "With Lehi landing in South America, who then left the ruins in Mexico, Belize, the Yucatan and Guatemala?" This volume also answers the follow-up question, "Since the Olmecs of Vera Cruz, Mexico, were not the precursors of the Jaredites, where did they land if not in Mesoamerica?" These questions, never asked by others, are at the heart of the geographical setting of the Nephite Nation. Many members of the Church, almost all LDS and BYU archaeologists, and all of F.A.R.M.S. and other ancient studies groups involved in this work, believe that Mesoamerica was the landing site of the Lehi Colony, and of the Jaredites long before them. However, a careful study of the sciences connected to the words Nephi left us, and the brief account of the Jaredites, the wind and sea currents, and climate, soils and other factors, as suggested in scripture simply cannot be satisfied by Mesoamerica. This second work shows the message Nephi prophets and Ether left us regarding the settlement of the Western Hemisphere, and provides an exciting and insightful glance at the world of the Jaredites, their trek to the Great Sea and the oceans they crossed in submersible barges to reach their land of promise-and where that land of promise was located.
