Case Not Closed: 5 of the Most Gruesome Unsolved Murder Cases Brandy Sullivan

Serial murders, especially those unsolved, are one of the most horrific things that can happen to a town. The very thought that there is someone stalking the streets as a hunter stalks its prey, the streets that you live on, looking for victims to carry out a sick and evil game on, is a very terrifying prospect. Many of these killers strike in the same area for years, others move around spreading fear in new neighborhoods and luckily, many of them are caught. However, when the killer is not caught, citizens are forced to imagine when he or she will strike again. Some murders, while not the work of a serial killer, are so gruesome they leave their mark on the community long after the case is dubbed cold and the newspapers stop writing about it. These communities suffer through the probing eyes of the curious and the thoughts that a murder may still live among them. This book explores five of the strangest unsolved murders in history. Enjoy and may your fears not invade your dreams.
