POSSESSED

INTRODUCTORY BONUS: 3 complimentary stories included in this copy!

Adelaide Harmon loved her simple life. Sometimes life was hard in the Appalachian mountains of North Carolina in 1960 but she had all she needed. Sweet little Adelaide, a credit to her parents, is a gentle soul. Kind and helpful Adelaide refused to leave her aging parents when she finished school and still lives with them deep in a holler, keeping the animals fed and the garden going. She also tends her Poppa's still when he gets arthritis and finds it difficult to get up to the still.

An accident changes life for all of them and Adelaide's life hangs in the balance between faith and modern medicine. An ancient evil intrudes into their lives, attempting to steal Adelaide away, and Eva and Malachi, Adelaide's parents, have to decide if their faith is the best medicine or if the new doctor in town is right and modern medicine is what the girl needs. Their faith will be tested as they deal with horrors they can't understand and as they search for answers. Will God save their daughter from an evil as old as the land they live on or will modern medicine cure the girl of her torment?
