Somewhere Down the Road: Love will always find a way. Debbie Harader

Devastated by the loss of her mother, Brooke breaks off her engagement to longtime love of her life Chris, and is drawn into a deep depression causing her to withdraw from everything dear to her. Everything changes when Brooke meets college football star, Matt, who sweeps her into a very exciting and dynamic relationship which awakens her zest for living. As she follows Matt into his career as a professional football player, Brooke is introduced to a life that most girls only dream of. As the relationship with Matt turns serious, a conflict between an intense romance and deep seated emotional obstacles emerge. As Brooke's mind begins to clear, the dilemma of where her heart lies begins to surface. Does she prefer the spontaneity and intoxicating excitement of an American icon Matt is destined to be or the sedate, uncomplicated life of her enduring cowboy that only Chris provides? Twists and turns are rampant in this romantic triangle which makes her decision mind boggling. She loves both men without question in different ways yet all consuming. Both men offer a distinct attraction; Matt with his intensity and intrigue and Chris with his safe and secure devotion. Thus begins her journey, remembering her mother's words that love will always find its way
