The Artist of My Heart Christopher M. Woods

Each season is painted with its own unique blend of emotion, a color wheel of triumphs and tragedies. The Artist of My Heart tells the story of the journey through each of these seasons. From the vibrant light of love to the bleak night of despair, every heart has been brushed by the shades of these hues. Yet through it all, hope remains the primary connection between what was lost and what has been found. Blended together through different tones, what colors will your eyes see? What do you paint as you seek to find your own story, your own portrait, your own artist of your heart?
