A Home for Pearl Squirrel (Spanish and English Edition) Amy Crane Johnson

Pearl Squirrel is perky and curious. This is the first time she is building her own leaf nest and she wants everyone to like it. She learns about the different types of homes and habitats in which her woodland friends live and play.

We learn about diversity in this tale of exploration and investigation into the way various animals inhabit their own particular environment.

Pearl's feelings of inadequacy are resolved with the understanding and wisdom of Solomon, the wisest raven in the forest.

Outstanding illustrations enliven the text and play an active role in the storytelling fun.

Bilingual text: Both in English and Spanish
