But what if it was possible to transform the whole process into something both meaningful and totally effective? What if we could seize the moment and transform the coming year into something truly spectacular? What if we could lay the foundations for a better year and a better life than we ever thought possible? That's the objective of this timely book on breaking free from the old habits of the past and creating a better, happier, healthier and fully expressed life for yourself. A way to transform ourselves into stronger, more able, more successful and much happier individuals. Because that potential resides within each of us and Dr Gerry is on a mission to help you experience the richness of that potential in your life. The methods are laid out in a simple format for you to follow but Dr Gerry also encourages you to choose the areas from his menu that are most meaningful to you personally. So you can pick and choose the areas that are most relevant to your own life. Twenty-one key areas that can help you to make the coming year your best ever and take you to the heights of success and fulfillment that you truly deserve.

The book explores the challenges of what we do with our time. It looks at some of our less helpful habits and shows us how to transform them into worthwhile and supportive behaviours. It opens up questions about our real potential and shows us how to access our deeper layers of creativity. It encourages us to take charge of our lives. It challenges us to clean up the messes we all make. It calls to us to live a fuller, richer and more satisfying life. It wants us to know the meaning of happiness. These are all extremely worthwhile goals and the book provides the steps and the guidance to making these goals a reality.
