Dolls: And Why We Love Them Mary Thompson, Welleran Poltarnees

Dolls have been our companions from the dawn of human intelligence. They are beloved by both children and adults, and their appeal is as complex as our consciousness. This volume evokes this appeal through its many and varied illustrations, a variety of quotations from books on dolls and toys and their place in our lives, and the author's insights. The images in Dolls and Why We Love Them are all illustrations from old children's books.
