Eating Disorder: Something Deeper Bobbie Gore

The ground-breaking information in this book is slowly finding its way into the mainstream. Don't wait until someone repackages this information and charges an inflated price. This book is the first to present certain connections that make all the difference as to how quickly this disease is understood, and how quickly you begin healing the impulses disordering the Nourishment Process.

Whether food and weight-control is your home; your best friend; or your mother; this book will help you find that which nurtures and sustains you. It will help you step-back from the human identity and remember what you have always known, that your true being is compassion. You are the compassion that heals the void; heals the deepest pain where eating disorder is perpetuated. You will remember that, who you believe yourself to be, is how you will care for all.

In this book you will find the connections to go from the bottom of anorexia and bulimia to new heights of being. If you suffer from eating disorder, you may find you are part of an important message that goes beyond individual recovery and that needs to be heard: compassion is the truth of your being and the truth of this book.

Finding the cause of eating disorder, restores dignity to those suffering with this disease. There is more to anorexia and bulimia, this book cracks the mystery. There are environmental and societal forces that need healing; no disease illustrates this better than anorexia and bulimia. More importantly, find recovery from this disease with a new approach.
