Kaitlyn has been in love with her best friend's brother for years.

She's always thought he hates her, so she acts like she hates him in return, to hide how she really feels.

But he's actually in love with her too and has only been acting like he hates her to hide his real feelings.

What happens when he can't hide his feelings anymore and what happens when Kaitlyn can't pretend she hates him any longer?

What will Kaitlyn's best friend do when she finds out?

This book is the first of two books and ends with a cliff hanger.
