Out on yet another drunken night, Bannon, an idealistic but self-destructive dive guide, gets caught in a drunken barroom brawl. An unexpected accident the next day leaves a diver he's responsible for stranded in the ocean. With the booze still on his breath, and terrified of the consequences, Bannon goes on the run. Desperate for a way out of Thailand he strikes up with the Frenchman, a charismatic but ruthless drug smuggler offering Bannon a chance at freedom in return for one 'small' favor. As the two men travel toward the Golden Triangle, Bannon crosses paths with Alina, a beautiful traveler searching for a rare and powerful hallucinogenic. As Bannon begins to fall for Alina, and the Frenchman's sinister designs continue to unfold, he is pulled deeper into a world of drugs, danger, and deceit. A world from which there is seemingly no escape.

Dark, suspenseful, and full of exotic locations, On the Run takes you on a wild, violent, ride through the sordid underbelly of mid 90's Thailand.
