The Val Thor Discourses is a collection of channeled writings and spiritual teachings over the years posted by the author on various websites of the Internet. These writings have firm scripture basis as the writer is well versed in our sacred scriptures in the original languages in which they were written. Going where few theologians have gone in scripture interpretation it is evident that Jesus Christ was and is known in other parts of the universe as well as on planet Earth. One of the unique points that stand out in the Val Thor writings is his flare for mixing metaphysical and scientific understanding of the universe with a background of Christian belief system and proving from a scientific standpoint the accuracy of the Bible in lieu of modern scientific discovery, bringing out nuances of understanding that has been overlooked by the theologians of the ages. If you've puzzled over modern scientific findings in regard to the planet's age and origin Val's article, "Pre-Adamic Civilizations and Flood" is a great eye-opener to Scientists and Christians alike as he proves from the sacred western scriptures the ice age, a past civilization that pre-dates Adam and brings together scripture that has been used by scoffers to claim the Bible contradicts itself.
