Imperfect People Doing God's Perfect Work: Through Weakness They Were Made Strong Annette R. McDonald

God's perfect plan on the earth is not carried out by angels - it is carried out by people like you and me, who walk in shoe leather. Many times we get a lot of sand in our shoes, as it were, and we limp, stumble, or even fall. But God, in His sweet tender mercy picks us up, and we continue walking, doing God's work, and "through weakness we are made strong." Imperfect people carried out God's work in Biblical times - and imperfect people still do God's perfect work in the earth today.
