William Smith can't get the woman from his one night stand out of his head. Many times he wished it hadn't been only a one night stand, but had no way of contacting her. When she suddenly appears in his office a few months later, he's shocked. Now that she is within his reach again, he has no plans to let her go.

Lily Rose had never easily slipped into bed with anyone until she met William. He made her feel things no one else did in only the span of a few hours. When he was gone the next morning, she felt upset but didn't let it stop her from going on with her life. By chance, she meets him again several months later and she realizes she still has the same ache for him. Hopefully she can keep her feelings a secret, as well as the little bundle she's carrying.
