Bully You (The Bully Series Book 1) Erica M. Cook

Lacy Willows is a young woman who's new to the religion of Wicca. Though successful in many ways, her new faith has required her to look at her past with a deeper and harsher scrutiny. In the process she finds herself on a journey to apologize to the one person she hurt more than anyone else. But nothing is as simple as it seems, "I'm sorry" isn't good enough when the person you've hurt turns out to be the one person you can't stop pining for.

Tara Makens's life hasn't gone as she had once planned. In the time since she was young she's learned to live with the past, but only by blocking it and not really looking forward. The notion that one of her worst bullies actually regrets the pain she caused is something she's never thought about and isn't prepared to deal with. Her habit of keeping people at arms length to keep them from hurting her is about to blow up in her face, as most of what she believes to be true turns out to be false. Forgiveness doesn't come easily when you know the one apologizing doesn't know how wrong they've been.
