This is the amazing testimony of Barbara Cueto who was gradually transformed from a little princess to a Mafia Princess to, ultimately, God's Princess. Her life did not begin in ideal circumstances, as she was born into an alcoholic home and was sexually abused from an early age. Ironically, she eventually became everything that she had once loathed, including falling in love and marrying a murderous, cocaine addicted, Italian gangster and becoming ensconced in the world of drugs and pornography. But regardless of how vile the little princess turned Mafia princess grew to see herself, one day she miraculously discovered that God had always seen within her a purity and potential. Through Christ's powerful work and by His grace, Barbara Cueto became a Christian minister of the Gospel as well as a published author and international speaker.
