Once Wasn't Enough 2 Danelle

With the greatest loss of Trista's young life, come a few lessons in love and relationships. A smart and compelling young woman was left a shell of herself, following the untimely demise of her first love, Maj. In the process of living in a world without him, Trista finds herself in bad situations over and over again. In the midst of these bad spirals, in walks Genesis. He is a young and attractive man that turns the world Trista knows, upside down. With so much unknown about this handsome man, Trista must decipher if he is good or bad for her?

Will Shae finally choose between KD and Dame or will they both leave her alone? Only time will tell. When it comes to young love, who knows what's for real and what's not. This is the second installment of a three-part series that tells of Trista's love affair! Let's see if the second time around was enough for her...
