Are you a college student who is sick of living on microwaved ramen? Or maybe a young professional who spends way too much time and money at restaurants? This book is for anyone who thinks that cooking involves lots of equipment, lots of time, lots of technical know-how, and lots of cash. With just a rice cooker, 20 ingredients, and a few other things, we'll show you how to make a month's worth of meals so you can eat fast, eat on a budget, and, most importantly, eat well.
