The Billionaire's Mail Order Bride

Victoria Manning simply didn't need men. She liked them as friends or family members; but, in the house, getting in the way, tracking mud on the good carpet. No. Emphatically not. She read an offer in the newspaper offering a position as a wife with exactly the description of marriage she wanted.

Nathan Burdette didn't want a wife. The Millionaire ran his life as he wished. He didn't have time or desire to give a woman the kind of attention she wanted. However, he didn't have a choice. Not if he wanted the gold mine his father left him. The will said he must marry and produce an heir within a year. It couldn't be broken.

Victoria answered the ad. Nathan was pleased. She was pretty and independent and wanted to raise a child. Victoria liked the look of her soon-to-be husband. Nathan was tall, handsome and independent.

After a stop at the Justice of the Peace, they stood in their hotel room, looking at the bed in front of them, frozen with fear.

Double Dragon

Shae is the typical type A personality that can be found at most colleges around the country. She had a plan that did not involve much else than her studies and the many jobs needed to cover rising tuition hikes. Her life was busy and full, but there was something missing that she did not even know she needed.

Caspian was different, his search was specific and he knew exactly what he was looking for. He was looking for his mate, to be shared with his other dragonkin partner. He sat perched on a hillside because an old woman had promised him that his long wait was over. When he hears a scream, he knows that the woman who needs saving, is the one he has spent a decade waiting for.

Shae feels an instant connection to her savior and things get hot between the two of them almost immediately. It is only when Cass starts talking of a third and dragons that she realizes that she is way in over her head. Will Shae be able to handle the new twist life has given her or will she yearn for the driven life that she was used to? Can she really let go?

The Billionaire Cowboy's Baby

Beautiful young brunette, Grace Purdue, heads to the local Barn Dance with the intention of pursuing the town's most eligible bachelor. What she finds when she gets there however, is that eligible as the oil tycoon might be, he is also crass, inconsiderate and bigoted. None of the things she – nor any other woman with a brain in her head – should be looking for in a future husband. Fortunately for Grace, the night is not a complete waste of time when she runs in to the blue jean, cowboy hat wearing, Arthur Monroe.

Arthur Monroe is everything that oil tycoon, Everett D. Roosevelt isn't. He is polite, kind and most of all, he is looking for a wife. But Arthur isn't all he appears to be, he is hiding a secret or two himself. Will Grace still give him the time of day when she finds out what Arthur is hiding? Or will she turn the other way and continue her search for the perfect husband?
